Safety Boots Reimbursement Policy

Object

Cleaners are required to wear CSA approved safety boots during the purview of their regular job duties/responsibilities. In light of this understanding and in order to enable employees to perform their work in a safe manner, we have established this policy to reimburse eligible employees for the purchase of CSA approved safety boots.

Guidelines

Employees who are required to wear CSA approved safety boots while completing the duties/responsibilities of their job will be eligible for a reimbursement of up to sixty three dollars ($63.00) on an annual basis. To be reimbursed, employees must: Gain prior approval from the MASTER Commercial Cleaning to purchase CSA approved safety boots;

- Submit the itemized original receipt for the CSA approved safety boots purchase to their Franchisee; and
- Present the CSA approved safety boots to verify that they are CSA approved and acceptable for use as Personal Protective Gear.

Receipts/Documentation and inspection must be presented/completed within 7 days from the time of purchase. Employees are responsible for submitting all receipts and related documentation to Payroll. Employees will be reimbursed via direct deposit.

If a pair of CSA approved safety boots becomes irreparably damaged, upon approval from MASTER Commercial Cleaning, the employee may purchase another pair within the same calendar year. This will render their safety boots allowance forfeit for the following year.

Exceptions

During an extended leave such as maternity or parental leave or extended sick leave, the boot reimbursement payment will be suspended until the employee returns to work.

Responsibilities

Employees are responsible to maintain their safety boots in good repair and serviceable condition.

Acknowledgement and Agreement

I, _____, acknowledge that I have read and understand the Safety Boots Reimbursement Policy. I agree to abide by this policy and will ensure that the employees for whom I am responsible also respect it. I understand that the violation of the rules and procedures set out in this policy expose me to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
